IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license and other identifying documents.

The purpose of collecting this information is to help ensure that all applicants are treated fairly and that the housing needs of communities and neighborhoods are being fulfilled. For residential mortgage lending, Federal law requires that we ask applicants for their demographic information (e.g. ethnicity, race and sex) in order to monitor our compliance with equal credit opportunity, fair housing and home mortgage disclosure laws. You are not required to provide this information, but are encouraged to do so. You may select one or more "Hispanic or Latino" origins and one or more designations for "race". The law provides that we may not discriminate on the basis of this information or on whether you choose to provide it. However, if you choose not to provide the information and you have made this application in person, Federal regulations require us to note your ethnicity, race and sex on the basis of visual observation and surname. If you do not wish to provide some or all of this information, please check below. Check one or more that apply.

The Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act (S.A.F.E. Act) was enacted as part of the Housing and Economic Recovery Act of 2008. This Act requires an employee of our bank who acts as a residential mortgage loan originator (MLO) to register with the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry (NMLS), obtain a unique identifier, and to maintain this registration. Further, Platinum Bank has adopted a written policy and procedures designed to assure compliance with these requirements and require all mortgage loan originators to follow these policies and procedures.
